

Professional Development Program (PDP) 2008-2010 Triennium

The flexible and comprehensive Professional Development Program for Rural and Remote Medical Practitioners

PDP Participants Handbook now available in hard copy or on ACRRM website

Relevant

- Meets the needs of Rural and Remote Medicine practitioners
- Allows maintenance of FACRRM, VR, Clinical Privileging, and Rural Radiology Item Number
- Gives access to the best distance learning facilities available (RRMEO)

Simple

- Easy to manage records and inventory maintenance
- Straight forward online access to educational resources and discussion forums
- Personal online learning planner

Personalised

- Helpful team members provide support at national and regional levels
- Training providers encouraged to provide education to meet your needs
- Assistance provided to help ensure your compliance each triennium

PDP Registration and Participation is FREE to all ACRRM Members

For further information about the ACRRM Professional Development Program,
please call 1800 223 226 or email to pdp@acrrm.org.au.

